Mr. Abdulhaq Al-Khalidi
No. 2, 340 South Bouquet Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15213

Dear Mr. Al-Khalidi:

Please find attached hereto a copy of United States Patent Application Serial Number 09/669,400, filed on September 22, 2000, along with the corresponding international (PCT) application. The U.S. application was originally filed of behalf of Industrial Microwave Technologies, Inc. (IMT), inadvertently listing Frederick A. Schaefer as the sole inventor of the claimed subject matter. However, according to our information and belief, Mr. Schaefer is actually a joint inventor of the subject matter, along with you and Mr. Kingston. Accordingly, all three inventors were listed on the PCT application when it was filed on December 21, 2000.

We now request your cooperation and signature on the attached documents to enable appropriate correction of the inventorship entity of the above-identified U.S. patent application. Specifically, your signature is requested on (i) a new Declaration and Power of Attorney, and (ii) a Statement of Inventorship Error In Absence of Deceptive Intent. These signed documents will be used to file a Petition to Correct Inventorship with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO).

We request that you review the attached patent applications, and then sign and return the two attached documents at your earliest convenience, using the enclosed pre-addressed envelope.

We realize that you are also an applicant on United States Patent Application Serial Number 09/437,807, filed by Duquesne University of the Holy Ghost, claiming the same subject matter as that claimed by IMT's application. Mr. Schaefer, as you are aware, has previously asserted a claim of joint inventorship on Duquesne's application, based on his conceptual contribution to the claimed multi-step process. Unfortunately, despite our reasoned arguments, Duquesne and its agents have refused to acknowledge Mr. Schaefer's joint inventorship status. Significantly, this refusal jeopardizes the ultimate validity and enforceability of any patent issued from the Duquesne application, because the naming of the correct inventorship entity is a statutory requirement for a valid and enforceable patent.

Mr. Abdulhaq Al-Khalidi
July 26, 2001

Therefore, to protect the ownership interests of all true joint inventors, we remain committed to the successful prosecution of IMT's U.S. and international (PCT) patent applications.

If, after reviewing this request, it is your intention not to cooperate in correcting the inventive entity of IMT's patent application, please check the box below, sign thereunder, and return a photocopy of this letter using the enclosed pre-addressed envelope.

☐ I will not cooperate as per this request.

Abdulhaq Al-Khalidi

Very truly yours,

Re: U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/669,400 for
PROCESS FOR TREATING WASTE OIL

Dear Mr. Al-Khalidi:

Your receipt of our letter of July 26, 2001 has been confirmed to us by a "domestic return receipt" for certified mail. Because we have received no response to our request, we now follow up our letter of July 26, 2001 by again requesting your cooperation in signing and returning the two forms which were enclosed with that letter so that we can proceed with the change of inventorship in the above-captioned patent application.

We remain committed to the successful prosecution of U.S. and international (PCT) patent applications that will result in valid and enforceable patents that list all the joint inventors. We understand that Duquesne has abandoned its applications based on the same subject matter.

If, after reviewing this further request, we receive no response from you within 10 business days from the date of this letter, we will interpret such lack of response as a final indication of your intent not to cooperate in this matter and proceed with the change of inventorship despite your recalcitrance. Should you need additional forms, please let me know.

Fritz Shaefer Patent Matters

Dear Mr. Davison,

I received your letter dated July 26, 2001 and became very disturbed and disappointed in the actions taken by Mr. Shaefer as they involve me. When he first met me at Duquesne University, he had no knowledge of the application of my discovered intellectual property - continuous supercritical fluid extraction process in its application to the purification of used oil. Upon reading the patent application, I learned to my complete disappointment that he has taken my property, combined it with whatever he learned from Dr. Kingston also while at Duquesne and whatever he knew about the microwave process, into a new invention, which he thereafter filed for a patent.

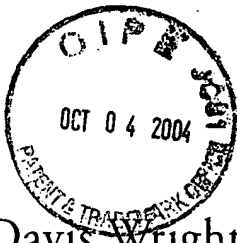

Without my consent, authority, or permission, Mr. Shaefer thereafter filed for an international patent (PCT) a copy of which you also enclosed with the U.S. Patent application, and put my name on it as a co-inventor. I am shocked at the audacity of the action and the fraudulent misrepresentation to the international office where it was filed or published on June 28, 2001 that I was a co-inventor when I clearly had nothing to do with the matter other than the fact that he absconded with my intellectual property.

Not only will I not cooperate with any attempt to correct the record with the U.S. Patent office, but, I am considering what else I must do to set the record straight. I suggest for starters that you correct the record with the international office and remove my name from that filing and show me that you did it. Second, I next suggest that the other application be amended to remove any reference to my invention. To say that he wants to correct the inventorship by adding names does not do it. Do you recommend that I contact the office and ask what should be done to remove any references to my invention? From what I remembered, Mr. Shaefer breached the Creda that he signed while at Duquesne. Any interference with my intellectual property will be met by whatever opposition I can muster that is lawfully correct. I certainly do not object to his going forward with a corrected application showing his own idea without any reference to me or to my invention. So I will not cooperate with your request and will not sign any of the papers that you sent to me and expect you to do the right thing as discussed above and send me something to prove that you did it. Let me know if you want me to write to these offices instead.

Regards,

A. E. Al-Khalidi, Ph.D.
